2. PURPOSE AND LEGAL BASIS OF PROCESSING

The personal data you provide will be processed for the following purposes:

- a) conclusion and execution of the contract and all related activities;
- b) fulfilment of obligations under the law, regulations, applicable legislation and other provisions issued by authorities empowered by law and by supervisory and control bodies;
- c) relationship management with suppliers of goods and services, both acquired and potential.

The processing of data for the purposes referred to in paragraph 2, letters a) and c) is carried out for the execution of the contract (Article 6.1, letter b) of the GDPR). The processing of data for the purposes referred to in paragraph 2, letter b) is carried out to fulfil a legal obligation (Article 6.1, letter c) of the GDPR).

3. COMPULSORY OR OPTIONAL NATURE OF THE SUBMISSION OF DATA AND CONSEQUENCES OF A REFUSAL TO PROVIDE PERSONAL DATA

The provision of data for the above purposes is mandatory. Any refusal, also partial, to provide data for the above purposes will make it impossible for the Data Controller to manage the contractual relationship and provide the requested service.

4. DATA PROCESSING METHODS

The processing of personal data is carried out by means of the operations indicated in Article 4 no. 2) of the GDPR, for the above-mentioned purposes, whether on paper or computer, by means of electronic or otherwise automated tools, in compliance with the regulations in force in particular on confidentiality and security and in accordance with the principles of fairness, lawfulness, transparency and protection of your rights.

The processing is carried out directly by the Controller's organisation, its Processors and/or persons in charge of processing (authorized persons).

5. COMMUNICATION AND DISSEMINATION

Your personal data may be communicated to the following categories of subjects, within the limits strictly relevant to the obligations, the tasks and the purposes set out above and in compliance with current legislation:

1. subjects to whom such communication must be delivered in order to fulfill or to demand the fulfillment of specific obligations provided for by laws, regulations and/or EU legislation;
2. companies belonging to the Group of the Data Controller, controlled or connected to the Data Controller, which act as data processors or for administrative and accounting purposes (purposes related to the fulfilment of internal organizational activities, administrative, financial and accounting activities, in particular, functional to the fulfilment of contractual and pre-contractual obligations), as well as for marketing purposes (in this case upon your consent);
3. external physical and/or legal persons that provide services that are instrumental to the activities of the Data Controller for the purposes referred to in paragraph 2 (consultants, companies, institutions, professional firms, etc.). These subjects will operate as Data Processors.

The list of Data Processors is available at the Controller's premises. Personal data will not be disseminated in any way, except where required by law, regulation or EU legislation.

6. DATA RETENTION

Personal data will be retained for the entire duration of the contract concluded with the Controller, after which the data will be retained for the fulfilment of the statutory terms (10 years from the termination of the contractual relationship) for the retention of administrative documents and accounting records, after which they will be deleted.

7. DATA TRANSFER TO A THIRD COUNTRY AND/OR INTERNATIONAL ORGANISATION

Personal data are stored on servers located within the European Union. Data Controller does not intend to transfer Data to countries or organizations outside the European Union/EEA. In any case, Data Controller assures as of now that the possible future non-EU transfer of data will take place in accordance with the applicable legal provisions, subject to the stipulation of the standard contractual clauses approved by the European Commission pursuant to Art. 46 GDPR or to countries that the European Commission has deemed to guarantee an adequate level of protection, in accordance with the provisions of Art. 44 et seq. GDPR. Any exceptions to the above will take place only in compliance with Art. 49 GDPR.

8. POTENTIAL AUTOMATED PROCESSING

No automated decision-making processes are used, including profiling activities as referred to in Art. 22 paragraphs 1 and 4 of the European Regulation 679/2016.

9. RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECTS

In your capacity as data subject, you have rights set forth in art. 15 GDPR, and in particular:

1. to obtain confirmation of the existence of personal data concerning you, even if not yet registered, and their communication in an intelligible form;
2. to obtain the indication: a) of the origin of personal data; b) of the purposes and methods of the processing; c) the existence of an electronic decision-making process, including profiling, and of the logic applied, as well as of the importance and consequences envisaged for the interested party in case of processing carried out with the aid of electronic instruments; d) the contact details of the Controller and, where applicable, its representative, as well as the Data Processor; e) of the subjects or categories of subjects to whom the personal data may be communicated or who can learn about them as appointed representative in the territory of the State, as data processors or agents;
3. to obtain: a) updating, rectification or, when interested, integration of data; b) the cancellation, transformation into anonymous form or blocking of unlawful data processed, including data that retention is unnecessary for the purposes for which the data were collected or subsequently processed; c) the attestation that the operations referred to in letters a) and b) have been brought to the attention, also with regard to their content, of those to whom the data have been communicated, except in the case in which this fulfillment proves impossible or involve a use of means manifestly disproportionate to the protected right;
4. to object, in whole or in part a) for legitimate reasons, to the processing of personal data concerning you, even if pertinent to the purpose of the collection; b) to the processing of personal data concerning you for the purpose of sending advertising or direct sales material or for carrying out market research or commercial communication, through the use of automated calling systems without the intervention of an operator by e-mail and/or through traditional marketing methods by telephone and/or paper mail. Please note that the right of opposition of the data subject, set out in point b) above, for direct marketing purposes through automated methods extends to traditional methods and that, in any case, the data subject retains the right to exercise the right of opposition also only in part. Therefore, the data subject may decide to receive only communications through traditional methods or only automated communications or neither of the two types of communication. Where applicable, it also has the rights referred to in Articles 16-21 RGPD (right of rectification, right to cancellation ("right to be forgotten"), right to limitation of processing, right to data portability, right of opposition), as well as the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority (Privacy Authority).

For the exercise of the rights referred to in art. 15 and following of the GDPR or for questions or information regarding the processing of your data and the security measures adopted, you can fill the request to our company to the following address:
